Policies and Procedures for Columbarium

The columbarium within the Memorial Garden of the Olympia Unitarian Universalist Congregation (OUUC) is set aside for interment of the human cremains of members and friends of the congregation. Here in the peace of a wooded setting adjacent to the northern end of the church building is the symbolic return to one's spiritual home and the sanctity of the final resting place. Commingling of the cremains symbolizes our life together and our oneness as a spiritual community.

1. Columbarium Parameters. The columbarium is constructed of stone with an underground concrete container that allows cremains deposited within the columbarium to become part of the earth over time. Memorial plants and ornamental works may not be placed in or nearby the Memorial Garden.

2. Policy on Columbarium Use.

(a) The interment of cremains in the columbarium is open to:

- Any OUUC member.
- The immediate family of any OUUC member. "Immediate family" means spouse, child, sibling, parent, stepchild, stepparent, and state registered domestic partner of the decedent.
- Any person who has been active in the life of the congregation.
- Any pledging non-member.

(c) Fees: There is no fee, cost, charge or donation request for the interment of cremains in the columbarium.

(d) Services: A memorial service is optional. The interment of cremains in the columbarium may be by private service or may be open to the public, at the option of the person requesting the interment. The Minister and Memorial Services Committee will work with the family or persons requesting interment when a service is desired.

(e) Process and Documentation: Prior to interment of cremains a Request for Columbarium Interment shall be completed and approved by the minister or church administrator.

(f) Exhumation: Exhumation of cremains is prohibited.

4. Delivery of Cremains. The cremains of a decedent may be delivered directly to OUUC from a mortuary or by any other lawful means.

5. Limitation of liability. OUUC shall not be liable for loss or damage to cremains from any cause, except its own willful neglect or misconduct, and especially shall not be liable for damage caused by the elements, by vandals, by accidents, or by mishaps beyond its reasonable control. OUUC is not responsible for determination of compliance with RCW 68.50.160 Right to control disposition of remains. The person requesting permission to use the Columbarium for the interment of cremains must sign a statement that they have authority to control the disposition of said remains, which is included on the Application for Columbarium Interment.
